Retired Echo Publisher Ellis C. Cuevas dies at 87

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

Long-time Sea Coast Echo Publisher Ellis C. Cuevas died late on Monday, July 12, after a long illness. He was 87 years old.

“Teacher, mentor and role model of the highest integrity, Ellis was all those things and much more to me,” Randy Ponder — who worked for Cuevas for many years before succeeding him as Echo publisher in 2001 — said Tuesday. “A humble and unassuming man, Ellis was known for his love of Hancock County and also for his signature Hawaiian shirts.”

Cuevas was a native of Waveland, born the eldest of four sons in 1934 to Robert Ellis and Magdalena Cuevas.

Ellis’s wife of 59 years, Lillian Jane Taconi Cuevas, died on March 8, 2020. They had no children, but many nieces and nephews of which they were very proud.

His family has resided on the Mississippi Gulf Coast for more than 200 years, and he was proud of his historic lineage, which he traced back to Juan de Cuevas, the fabled “Hero of Cat Island.”

Ellis Cuevas served in the U.S. Army from 1954-1957, and was assigned to the National Security Agency as a cryptographer.

Upon being honorably discharged from the military in 1957, he began his newspaper career at the Echo, working in the composing room, darkroom, pressroom and circulation department.

In December of that year, he moved into advertising sales and was promoted to advertising manager in 1964.

He was made general manager of the paper in 1968, and promoted to publisher in May 1977.

In addition to his work with the newspaper and involvement with the Mississippi Press Association, Cuevas served the community in many capacities.

“Ellis Cuevas wasn’t just a good newspaper man, he was a dedicated community leader,” Tish Williams, executive director of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, said

D’head Council approves 20-year plan

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The Diamondhead City Council last week unanimously approved the “Envision Diamondhead 2040” 20-year comprehensive plan.

“It really is a vision of what you want the city to be,” City Manager Michael J. Reso said last August during a community meeting to help craft the plan’s details. “Where do we want to be? Where do we want to spend capital dollars for roads and bike lanes and other community projects?”

Part of the master plan, Reso said, is a “town center,” which local legislators were able to appropriate $1.5 mil-

MSDH warns that COVID-19 cases on the increase, children getting and dying from the virus

The number of COVID-19 cases in Mississippi is climbing again, and State Health Officer Dr. Thomas Dobbs said that if more people don’t get vaccinated against the virus, many more people across the state are going to “die needlessly.”

“Hospitalizations are climbing, and we have kids and adults on ventilators in intensive care with COVID-19,” according to the Mississippi State Department of Health. “Age groups that usually had only mild

County could take over beach maintenance by October

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

Last week, the Hancock County Board of Supervisors heard an updated from county road manager Vic Johnson about the availability of equipment for proposed in-house beach maintenance.

Johnson said that some of the equipment could take as long as four-to-six months to get.

“I feel like we could be ready to take this thing (beach maintenance) over around Oct. 1, based on the information we have with equipment availability,” he said. “Some of this stuff we have in-house already.”

Last month, Johnson told the board that the initial equipment cost was estimated to be about $889,000.

However, last Monday, Johnson said that since the county already owned some of the necessary equipment, that number would be lower.

Waveland Alderman begins new position with the city of Bay St. Louis

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

Last week, Waveland Ward 1 Alderman Jeremy Burke announced that he had accepted the position of zoning administrator and handle public relations for the city of Bay St. Louis. Burke and his wife Kristen Tusa also own Bay Books in Bay St. Louis. Burke said he has been in graduate school at the University of Southern Mississippi pursuing a master’s degree in economic development. “When this opportunity presented itself to me to work in the field of economic development in Hancock County, it was an opportunity that I could not pass up,” he said. “When I decided to enroll in graduate school, I knew that I wanted to pursue a career in economic development and I wanted to pursue that career in South Mississippi. I’m excited that Mayor Mike Favre and the city of Bay St. Louis have afforded me that opportunity to achieve both of these objectives.” Burke, who is currently serving his second term as Waveland’s Ward 1 alderman, said he will continue to serve in that capacity until his term expires in December 2022. “The only two certain things are death and taxes,” he said. “Prior to running for my second term, I thought this might be my last time.” Burke said that he does believe in term limits and that boards need “fresh ideas continuously.” However, Burke said that he is not ruling out running for a third term. “Being an alderman was something I wanted to do,” he said. “I was 28 and wanted the board to reflect the people of the city of Waveland.” Burke began his new position with the city of Bay St. Louis on July 12. He said he still plans to own and operate Bay Books. “Kristen and I both believe in education and literacy in Mississippi,” he said. “All communities need an independent bookstore. I don’t want to see the county without an independent bookstore.” Burke said that he considers himself “blessed” to serve Waveland as an alderman. “Just as I have done for the past six-and-a-half years, I will continue to forge ahead and work as hard as possible for all of Waveland, especially Ward 1,” Burke said. “My position with the city of Bay St. Louis will not affect my ability to serve as your Waveland Ward 1 alderman.”

Bay St. Louis hosts Inauguration ceremony

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The city of Bay St. Louis on Monday hosted an inauguration ceremony for Mayor Mike Favre and the Bay St. Louis City Council. “It was a pretty awesome event,” Favre said Tuesday. “Now we’ve got a lot of work to get done.” The inauguration had been postponed from earlier in the month, due to the untimely death of Ward 1 Councilman Doug Seal’s son Cayce in a tragic accident. However, Favre said, Hancock Justice Court Judge Brian S. Necaise administered the oaths of office to him and all the other council members so that they could legally take official action, if needed. As for Monday’s ceremony, Favre said, “we wanted to do it the right way.” Monday evening’s event included emcee Cynthia Chauvin, executive director of CASA of Hancock County; and opening and closing prayers from Pastor Frank Griffin of Church of the King. The Bay High School AFJROTC’s Honor Guard presented the colors.

es, as well as for “Most Original Boat,” “Best Design,” and “Most Dramatic Sinking.”

The primary purpose of the race was “to have a fun-filled community event to highlight Hancock County and raise funds in support of the Hancock County Historical Society,” event organizer Chris Roth said.

The competition included more than a dozen hand-made cardboard vessels, including a pirate ship, a submarine, a catamaran, a Viking longship, a gunboat, a raft and several different styles of rowboats.

Contestants had to make their boats entirely out of cardboard and paddle them 150 feet out, round a buoy and return to the beach without sinking or capsizing.

Chad Whitney’s 13-year-old son Jack designed, built and piloted the submarine.

“I helped him with some of the carrying and the folding and the gluing, but (Jack) designed it,” Chad Whitney said. “It took him about four days to put it together.

... It’s nice when you see your kids get involved in a project like this they really want to work on.”

And since it was a submarine, he said before the race, “If it sinks, it was just proper operation.”

Just before rounding the buoy, Jack’s boat started taking on water, and he ultimately won the contest’s “Most Dramatic Sinking” Award.

Adam Cain, a senior at Bay High School, won the singles’ race.

“I just jumped in and I started frantically paddling and somehow I won,” he said. “I’m very surprised. I expected to sink immediately.”

Mike Hansen, Al Copeland and Bruce Cabell — who refer to themselves as “The Three Amigos” — are all members of the Mystic Krewe of the Sea Horse, and represented the krewe in a cardboard pirate ship.

“It took about 10 hours to make it,” Copeland said.

“First of all, we had some really light cardboard,” Hansen said, “so what we ended up doing was, we got a bumper box — a box that an actual car bumper came in (from a car dealership) and we used cardboard tubes to make the bottom strong.”

Some of the detailing on the boat included a “cannon” and a plastic octopus climbing up the side.

“As long as we can make out there and back, we’re all good,” Hansen said before the race began.

Unfortunately, the Amigos had one of those “dramatic sinkings” after rounding the buoy, but their boat still won “Best of Show.”

St. Stanislaus student Brady McCaw and Hancock High School student Jaden Talbot won the group race in their Viking long-boat. They both wore horned faux-Viking helmets, as well.

“We worked on it over a couple of days, and then from last night until early this morning,” Jaden said. “We’re pretty tired, but ... It feels pretty good to win.”

Gex marveled at the number of people who turned out for the historical society’s inaugural event, and predicted great things for the next one.

“I can’t wait for next year,” Gex said. “It’ll be even bigger and better.”

“We were pleased with not only the participation and the fun that all the participants had,” Roth said, but also with the number of people who turned out to watch the race. It turned out to be a spectators’ event, a whole lot of entertainment. A lot of people came to see the spectacle, and they had a really good time, so we’ll be doing this again next year.”

Pearl River Community College Adds Unique Autonomous Coastal Mapping Course

SEA COAST ECHO

To help fill the demand for coastal mapping technicians, Pearl River Community College has signed a five-year Collaborative Applications Research Agreement with the National Oceans and Applications Research Center. The collaboration, which started in June, will prepare PRCC students for employment in autonomous coastal mapping and monitoring fields.

Through the PRCC/NOARC collaborative effort, PRCC's Hydrography classes are offered in coordination with its Unmanned Aerial Systems Program located at the PRCC Hancock Center in Waveland.

"Pearl River Community College is thrilled to partner with the NOARC leadership in offering this state-of-the-art program," PRCC President Dr. Adam Breerwood said. "We will be the first college in the nation to offer a curriculum that combines maritime and aerial unmanned systems training. We work diligently to provide our students with the skills necessary to compete on a global stage. NOARC's innovation and expertise are essential in this effort."

Coastal mapping and hydrography is the act of charting area waterways. Information attained through coastal mapping and hydrography includes the shape of the seafloor, water depth, possibly submerged obstructions, in addition to water levels and tides. Potential starting salaries for hydrographers range from $70,000-$80,000 per year and $50,000-$60,000 for hydrographic support technicians.

Students participating in the course will attain real-world knowledge and skills which will assist them in employment in emerging job fields; the coursework will also help position students with companies for potential co-op and internship possibilities.

Jokers

“They laugh at me because I’m different. I laugh at them because they’re all the same,” — The Joker — Heath Ledger.

I really do dislike superhero movies. The whole “good versus evil” plot line is so boring and over-used.

Someone does something “bad,” another person puts on a latex costume and flies to the rescue. Then the “bad” person is caught and put in jail where they await the “justice” system.

In the real world, these “bad” guys are judged by a jury of their peers. But who of us is really capable of judging morality?

Sure, those who commit horrific crimes like murder for instance, should be held accountable for their crimes. Also in the real world, people are hesitant to hold someone they view as a “hero” accountable for their crimes.

We are all capable of evil. Do we always act on it? Nah. But, I don’t always think that makes person superior to another.

“Their morals, their code; it’s a bad joke. Dropped at the first sign of trouble. They’re only as good as the world allows them to be. You’ll see — I’ll show you. When the chips are down, these, uh, civilized people? They’ll eat each other. See, I’m not a monster, I’m just ahead of the curve,” — The Joker — Heath Ledger.

For as long as I can remember, when I’ve watched these type of movies, I’ve always been more intrigued by the “bad” guy, mostly because the idea of “hero” worship seems so bizarre and unhealthy to me.

Are the so-called “bad” guys more a product of society, familial circumstances, or something else?

It’s one of the main reasons I watch true crime. I want to know the back story of some of the people who have committed unthinkable crimes. No, I don’t think that excuses the act, but it sheds light on the cycles of abuse, in some instances, that contribute to acts of violence and whatnot.

I recently watched a true crime story about a young man who not only told his parents he was hearing voices, but also his teachers and a couple of friends. But no one listened to him, nor did they think he might have a mental illness. So, when the voices encouraged him to act violently, he did.

“The worst part of having a mental illness is people expect you to behave as if you don’t,” — The Joker — Joaquin Phoenix.

The Joker, as if you couldn’t have guessed, is one of my favorite “villains,” mostly the portrayals done

Hancock History: Silver Slipper Casino

A second casino called Bayou Caddy’s Jubilee Casino opened in 1994 by George Baxter. The venture did not prosper and closed in 1995 and moved to Greenville, MS.

In January of 2005, a company called Silver Slipper, LLC. planned another casino for the Bayou Caddy site. It was decided to purchase the President Casino Barge that had been docked at the Broadwater Beach Resort in Biloxi. Unfortunately, Hurricane Katrina destroyed the President before it could be moved to Bayou Caddy. After the storm, the Mississippi Gaming Commission changed its rules to allow land-based casinos. The President Barge was fully insured, and subsequently, the project became the Silver Slipper Casino on land owned by the Cure Land Company, LLC. It opened in 2006 and was later acquired by the Full House Resorts in 2012 for $70M. A hotel was added in 2015. The Silver Slipper is now the flagship of their fleet of five casinos.

John Ferrucci has been the General Manager of the Silver Slipper Casino since its inception. The casino has added $30M in amenities over time. The casino has over 855 slot machines and 24 table games. The hotel has 120 units and nine penthouse suites. A second hotel is being planned to have 150 units and ten penthouse suites. Additional capital improvements scheduled as part of the Silver Slipper expansion include a convention center that can hold a meeting for up to 500 participants and provide banquet dining for up to 250 guests. A four hundred-car parking lot is being planned to be constructed from wetland in front of the casino. The Silver Slipper Casino has 550 employees and engages vendors and suppliers whose businesses are located in Hancock County, creating a positive financial ripple.

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce named Ferrucci the Citizen of the Year in 2012 because he has been such a good community activist. Ferrucci reports that there is a paucity of good hotel rooms in Hancock County for his patrons and prospective convention attendees. It is indeed fortunate that the Cure Land Company built the Pearl Hotel in downtown Bay St. Louis. Incidentally, the Mississippi Gaming Commission approved the Cure Land Company, LLC’s, application for a new gaming site approximately one mile down the beach from the Silver Slipper Casino.

The gaming industry has a positive economic impact on the local economy. A direct impact includes wages of casino employees, local purchases, local restaurants, and a gaming tax. Employer multiplier effects create indirect or induced jobs. Some such jobs include increased workers at other local hotels, local restaurants, retail establishments, teachers, and local law enforcement officers. Gaming promotes increased tourism and recreational spending, acting as an “export industry” attracting visitors from outside the state to spend their money locally.

The visible economic boom in our county was manifested by the addition of many businesses in the food and beverage sector and the steady increase of the real estate assessed values during the last thirty years. Current laws

Winter Wheat Available

Whether you are a photographer, a hunter or just like viewing wildlife on a sunny afternoon, anyone who has spent time overlooking a food plot will have a deep appreciation for wildlife plantings.

Food plots are very attractive to wildlife enthusiasts because they can supplement daily nutritional needs at a low cost. These plots can be designed to serve as a source of food and cover. Well-managed food plots have the potential to not only increase the wildlife population and their quality of health, but can also increase our opportunities for wildlife viewing.

To aid landowners who would like to plant wildlife food plots, Wildlife Mississippi is continuing its popular Wildlife Habitat Seed Program. Through this program, Wildlife Mississippi will make wheat available at a minimal cost.

The Wildlife Habitat Seed Program is designed to provide an incentive for landowners to establish and maintain food plots that will yield a variety of benefits to the landowner as well as to the species of wildlife he or she is managing.

Winter wheat will be available through Wildlife Mississippi’s Fall 2021 Wildlife Habitat Seed Program. All seed is treated and has good germination rates. Wildlife Mississippi will distribute the wheat in the month of September.

If planted properly, the various types of seed will be utilized by a variety of species of wildlife. White-tailed deer, turkeys, bobwhite quail, mourning doves, waterfowl, and many species of songbirds will benefit from the plantings of the wheat.

The guidelines regarding this program are simple and easy to follow. Anyone interested in obtaining wheat should place their order no later than July 31, 2021. Orders are fulfilled on a first come, first serve basis.

Shipping and handling charges incurred by Wildlife Mississippi are included in the price of the wheat. The cost will be $9.00 per 50 lb. bag. Pick up locations will be Amory, Flowood, Greenville, and Hattiesburg.

For an order form and planting recommendations for this beneficial program, send a self-addressed stamped envelope to Wildlife Mississippi, PO Box 10, Stoneville, MS 38776. If you wish to place your order online, please visit our website at www.wildlifemiss.org/seed.

hospitalized? People who are vaccinated. Only 10 percent of folks in hospitals for COVID-19 are fully vaccinated."

On Tuesday, the Mississippi State Department of Health reported 219 new cases of COVID-19 in the state and 10 new deaths. On Monday, the agency reported 798 new cases and three new deaths.

"Mississippi's total of COVID-19 cases is now 325,072, with 7,451 deaths," according to the agency's statement Tuesday morning. "There are currently 34 ongoing outbreaks of COVID-19 in long-term care facilities."

Mississippi's COVID-19 cases continue to be pushed higher by the delta variant of COVID-19 that is rapidly gaining ground among the unvaccinated."

Dobbs said in a Zoom-call town hall on Friday that the MSDH is recommending that any 65 or older or anyone of any age with other health issues avoid any indoor mass gatherings in the next few weeks, even if they have been vaccinated. He urged everyone in Mississippi age 12-up to get fully vaccinated.

State Epidemiologist Dr. Paul Byers said in the same meeting that the there have been about 150 cases of the Delta variant of COVID-19 reported in Mississippi.

Dobbs said Tuesday that 12 children in Mississippi were in ICU with confirmed COVID-19 infections, with 10 of them on ventilators.

In just the past week, Dobbs said, 379 Mississippi residents under age 18 had been diagnosed with the virus.

Although those aged 65-up still make up the greatest number of people hospitalized, Dobbs said, there had been a big sum in the number of cases involving people ages 25-to-39, with 481 cases reported in a single week.

As of last Thursday morning, 180 Mississippi residents were hospitalized with confirmed COVID-19 infections, with 21 patients on ventilators. As of Monday morning, 228 people were hospitalized with 32 on ventilators. By Tuesday morning, there were 268 people hospitalized with 50 people on ventilators.

As of Friday, there were no Delta variant cases reported in Hancock County, but there had been seven cases of the Alpha variant.

As of Tuesday morning, 3,940 cases of the virus — 18 since last Thursday — with 88 deaths had been reported in Hancock County, including 69 cases and 14 deaths in long-term care facilities.

In Harrison County, 18,840 cases and 320 deaths had been reported as of Tuesday, including 490 cases and 70 deaths in long-term care.

"If you haven't been vaccinated against COVID-19 yet, it's time to reconsider," according to a separate MSDH statement issued Monday. "The delta variant that's now circulating means that your risk is higher than it has been in the past. It's not only easier to get COVID-19 now, it's more likely that you'll be seriously ill (and pass illness on to family and friends). If you're unvaccinated and 65 or older, COVID-19 can be deadly -- but the new delta variant is also putting young adults into the hospital. There are convenient and free vaccinations available almost everywhere in Mississippi. Take a minute to locate one near you and schedule a visit. Check for local providers at <https://www.vaccines.gov/search/>, or one of MSDH's vaccination sites around the state: <https://msdh.ms.gov/page/14,23419,420,976.html>."

As of last Thursday, only about 11,899 Hancock County residents — about 25 percent of the population — had received at least one dose of a COVID-19 vaccine. Only 10,636 Hancock residents — about 22 percent of the population — had been fully vaccinated.

If you need a ride to get vaccinated, the Mississippi Department of Transportation is offering help with transportation. Call the toll free line, 1-866-813-3616.

Local pediatricians also recommend that parents have their children vaccinated before the 2021-2022 school year begins in August.

The Pfizer vaccine is authorized for children as young as 12, while the Moderna vaccine is for those 16-up and the Johnson & Johnson vaccine is approved only for those 18-up.

Container gardens offer fun weekend project

Putting together beautiful container gardens is as easy as gathering pots and planting what you like, such as this dinosaur kale growing with calibrachoa.

Basic, black plastic pots are functional but dull until they are decorated, such as this one that has been appliquéd with the name of the plant it contain but I like the old thriller, filler and spiller method (TFS for short) best.

For an herb thriller, choose from wooly, silver-gray curry plant; woody-stemmed, upright rosemary with aromatic gray-green, needle-like foliage; or the lemony-ginger fragrance of lemongrass. Both rosemary and lemongrass are Mississippi Medallion winners.

For filler herbs, you can't go wrong with basil. This plant has varieties like lemon-scented and -flavored lemon basil, spicy-flavored spicy globe or licorice-flavored amethyst basil.

Great spiller herbs that will sprawl over the container edge are creeping rosemary with its scented, bluish-green, needle-like foliage; pineapple mint with its delicate pineapple scent; and the creamy, variegated foliage of English thyme with its wonderful, aromatic, gray-green leaves.

Other combinations I like use leafy greens like kale or celery -- yes, celery -- and colorful flowers like calibrachoa or petunias. I typically just plant these together and don't worry about TFS.

An important and fun decision is what container to use.

Old school is terracotta, but there are other options. The colorful Talavera containers are becoming more widely available. Or, if you're a fan of home-remodeling shows, finding something you can repurpose can be satisfying. I love my herb box made by the Pine Belt Master Gardeners using scraps from their salad table construction projects.

I like to grow plants in the basic, black plastic pots, likely a throwback to my nursery and greenhouse background. While functional, these containers are also very dull.

An easy way to jazz up these basic containers is to paint them. I like to use textured spray paints that result in a stone-like appearance. This year, my wife has been decorating and appliquéing the names of the plants on my containers.

So for a new project this week, go to your favorite independent garden center and pick up some plants and a great container, and go have some garden fun.

DR. GARY R. BACHMAN
MSU EXTENSION SERVICE

Now that we're officially into summer, I know there will be days when it will be too hot to work in the garden, but I'll still want to do garden activities.

On those days, one easy garden project that I think is perfect is creating combination containers.

Putting together beautiful flowers and colorful foliage is as easy as gathering pots and planting. You can use everything from heirloom vegetables to flowers or any other type of plant you like.

I like to combine herbs in containers that I keep on the back porch and patio for easy access for dinner prep. Over the years, I've tried lots of different combinations,

Herbs are ideal plants for container gardens, and the variety among these plants makes it easy to select a thriller, filler and spiller.

Happiness and Roller Skating in a Buffalo Herd

By C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN.

Have you ever considered what the most important things in life are to you? Many of us go through our lives just doing those things that seem to need doing. Often we find that we are more likely to simply react to life than we are to try to live it in any meaningfully creative way. This may not be an intentional reality, but it is the case a lot of the time.

Others seem to identify their goal of happiness or meaning within the context of success or achievement. These persons are reaching for one more accomplishment, one more victory, one more way that they can feel that they can justify their existence in the world. Some of these are characterized as the “Type A” personalities who can never seem to find enough challenges for their lives.

I find myself impressed; however, by those incredible people who truly know the values by which they wish to live. They are in touch with their goals and dreams. For them, life is much more than reaction to outside stimuli.

C. Gerald Richardson, D. Min.

It is also more than simply climbing a ladder of success for its own sake. For these folks life is a true adventure into arenas which hold potential for personal fulfillment and enrichment. In other words, these are the folks who have come to understand what meaningful life is to them.

Does it always work? If by “work” one means that the end results are always assured and that outward signs of accomplishment are promised, then the answer is “no”. If, on the other hand, by “work” we mean the growth of personal and spiritual insight and strength which make for meaningful existence, then the answer is a resounding “Yes!”.

In a silly little song of popularity several years ago, Roger Miller sang, “Y o u can’t roller skate in a buffalo herd,

But you can be happy if you’ve a mind to.”

Sometimes, I get the notion that a lot of us are trying to get our happiness and meaning by trying to “roller skate in a buffalo herd”. It will never happen that way. We must learn to claim some essential truths and values in life. We must learn to live by them if we are to ever discover peace in our lives.

What are the values which you hold dear? What are the truths in your life which you claim as absolute? Are you trying to “roller skate in a buffalo herd” rather than to discover the core of your existence and anchor onto that?

May we be lead to discover and hold on to essential values, learn to live by them, and to trust the God of us all to walk with us on the journey.

No interest will be allowed on any good faith deposit. Bids will be accepted or rejected by the Governing Body on the date above shown for the sale of the Bonds. When a bid is rejected by the Governing Body, the good faith deposit accompanying said bid will be returned to the bidder. When a bid is accepted by the Governing Body, the good faith deposit accompanying said bid will be applied as part payment for the Bonds or, if the successful bidder fails to comply with this agreement to purchase the Bonds, will be retained as liquidated damages. Pending the application of the good faith deposit of the successful bidder as aforesaid, such deposit may be invested in direct obligations of, or obligations guaranteed by the United States of America or in repurchase agreements with banks fully secured by such obligations, and the County shall be entitled to any income from any such investment. The Governing Body reserves the right to reject any or all bids as well as the right to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid. All bids shall be submitted on the Official Bid Form which may be obtained from Eddie Favre, County Administrator, 854 Highway 90, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, telephone: (228) 466-4736 and the County's Municipal Advisor, Government Consultants, Inc., 116 Village Boulevard, Madison, Mississippi 39110, telephone: (601) 982-0005, attention: Mr. Steve Pittman. In the opinion of Butler Snow LLP ("Bond Counsel"), assuming compliance by the County with certain tax covenants, under existing statutes, regulations, rulings and court decisions, interest on the Bonds is excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes, and interest on the Bonds is not an item of tax preference for purposes of the federal alternative minimum tax. Bond Counsel will express no other opinion regarding other federal tax consequences resulting from the ownership, receipt or accrual of interest on or disposition of the Bonds. In addition, Bond Counsel is further of the opinion that under and pursuant to the Act, the Bonds and interest thereon are exempt from income taxation in the State of Mississippi.

The final approving opinion of Bond Counsel, relating to the validity and tax exemption of the Bonds, dated the date of delivery of the Bonds, and a transcript of the proceedings relating to the Bonds will be delivered to the successful bidder without charge. It is anticipated that CUSIP identification numbers will be secured and printed on the Bonds, but neither the failure to secure or print such numbers on any Bond nor any error with respect thereto shall constitute cause for failure or refusal by the successful bidder to accept delivery of and pay for the Bonds in accordance with its agreement to purchase the Bonds. All expenses in relation to the printing of CUSIP numbers on the Bonds shall be paid for by the County; provided, however, that the CUSIP Global Services charge for the assignment of said numbers shall be paid for by the successful bidder. The successful bidder will be given at least seven (7) business days advanced notice of the proposed date of delivery of the Bonds when that date has been tentatively determined. It is expected that the Bonds will be delivered in New York, New York and payment therefor shall be made in federal or other immediately available funds. At or before 11:30 a.m. on Monday, July 19, 2021, the winning bidder for the Bonds must provide to the County Administrator and Municipal Advisor the initial offering prices to the public. The winning bidder shall assist the County in establishing the issue price of the Bonds for federal income tax purposes and shall execute and deliver to the County at Closing an "issue price" or similar certificate setting forth the reasonably expected initial offering price to the public or the sales price or prices of the Bonds, together with the supporting pricing wires or equivalent communications, substantially in the form as may be appropriate or necessary, in the reasonable judgment of the winning bidder, the County and Bond Counsel. All actions to be taken by the County under this Notice of Public Sale to establish the issue price of the Bonds may be taken on behalf of the County by the County's Municipal Advisor and any notice or report to be provided to the County may be provided to the County's Municipal Advisor. The County intends that the provisions of Treasury Regulation Section 1.148-1(f)(3) (i) defining "competitive sale" for purposes of establishing the issue price of the Bonds) will apply to the initial sale of the Bonds (the "competitive sale requirements") because: (1) the County will disseminate this Notice of Public Sale to potential underwriters in a manner that is reasonably designed to reach potential underwriters; (2) all bidders will have an equal opportunity to bid; (3) the County may receive bids from at least three underwriters of municipal bonds who have established industry reputations for underwriting new issuances of municipal bonds; and (4) the County anticipates awarding the sale of the Bonds to the bidder who submits a firm offer to purchase the Bonds at the highest price (or lowest interest cost), as set forth in this Notice of Public Sale. Any bid submitted pursuant to this Notice of Public Sale shall be considered a firm offer for the purchase of the Bonds, as specified in the bid and in this Notice of Public Sale and shall not be subject to any conditions or qualifications except as permitted by this Notice of Public Sale. By submitting a bid, each bidder confirms that it has an established industry reputation for underwriting new issuances of municipal obligations. In the event that the competitive sale requirements are not satisfied, the County shall so advise the winning bidder. The County shall treat the first price at which 10% of a maturity of the Bonds (the "10% test") is sold to the public as the issue price of that maturity, applied on a maturity-by-maturity basis (and if different interest rates apply within a maturity, to each separate CUSIP number within that maturity). The winning bidder shall advise the County if any maturity of the Bonds satisfies the 10% test as of the date and time of the award of the Bonds. The County will not require bidders to comply with the "hold-the-offering-price rule" and therefore does not intend to use the initial offering price to the public as the sale date of any maturity of the Bonds as the issue price of that maturity. Bids will not be subject to cancellation in the event that the competitive sale requirements are not satisfied. Bidders should prepare their bids on the assumption that all of the maturities of the Bonds will be subject to the 10% test in order to establish the issue price of the Bonds. If the competitive sale requirements are not satisfied, then until the 10% test has been satisfied as to each maturity of the Bonds, the winning bidder agrees to promptly report to the County the prices at which the unsold Bonds of that maturity have been sold to the public. That reporting obligation shall continue, whether or not the Closing Date has occurred, until the 10% test has been satisfied as to the Bonds of that maturity or until all Bonds of that maturity have been sold. By submitting a bid, each bidder confirms that: (i) any agreement among underwriters, any selling group agreement and each retail distribution agreement (to which the bidder is a party) relating to the initial sale of the Bonds to the public, together with the related pricing wires, contains or will contain language obligating each underwriter that is a party to a retail distribution agreement to be employed in connection with the initial sale of the Bonds to the public to require each broker-dealer that is a party to such retail distribution agreement to report the prices at which it sells to the public the unsold Bonds of each maturity allotted to it until it is notified by the winning bidder or such underwriter that either the 10% test has been satisfied as to the Bonds of that maturity or all Bonds of that maturity have been sold to the public, if and for so long as directed by the winning bidder or such underwriter and as set forth in the related pricing wires. Sales of any Bonds to any person that is a related party to an underwriter shall not constitute sales to the public for purposes of this Notice of Public Sale. Further, for purposes of this Notice of Public Sale: (i) "public" means any person other than an underwriter or a related party, (ii) "underwriter" means (A) any person that agrees pursuant to a written contract with the County (or with the lead underwriter to form an underwriting syndicate) to participate in the initial sale of the Bonds to the public and (B) any person that agrees pursuant to a written contract directly or indirectly with a person described in clause (A) to participate in the initial sale of the Bonds to the public (including a member of a selling group or a party to a retail distribution agreement participating in the initial sale of the Bonds to the public), (iii) a purchaser of any of the Bonds is a "related party" to an underwriter if the underwriter and the purchaser are subject, directly or indirectly, to (i) at least 50% common ownership of the voting power or the total value of their stock, if both entities are corporations (including direct ownership by one corporation of another), (ii) more than 50% common ownership of their capital interests or profits interests, if both entities are partnerships (including direct ownership by one partnership of another), or (iii) more than 50% common ownership of the value of the outstanding stock of the corporation or the capital interests or profit interests of the partnership, as applicable, if one entity is a corporation and the other entity is a partnership (including direct ownership of the applicable stock or interests by one entity of the other), and (iv) "sale date" means the date that the Bonds are awarded by the County to the winning bidder.

The successful bidder shall have the right, at its option, to cancel its agreement to purchase the Bonds if the Bonds to be delivered by the County in accordance with the preceding paragraph are not tendered for delivery within sixty (60) days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the County shall return to said bidder its good faith deposit without interest. The County shall have the right, at its option, to cancel its agreement to sell the Bonds if within five (5) days after the tender of the Bonds for delivery the successful bidder shall not have accepted delivery of and paid for the Bonds, and in such event the County shall retain the successful bidder's good faith deposit as liquidated damages.

District 1 Supervisor Theresa Ryan asked if it would be possible to go and purchase the equipment now.

“You can’t purchase them, they’re not available,” Johnson said. “See, that’s the problem. They got them coming, just going to be that long before they actually get any in.”

Johnson added that he could attempt to put in an order, but that “there’s no guarantee.”

“They’re telling us that they can have this equipment in by this date and it would be available to us at that time,” he said.

He said that the county is on a waiting list.

The county is currently on a month-to-month contract with Black Diamond Construction, LLC for beach maintenance.

County attorney Gary Yarborough said that the county would have to give the current contractor seven days notice

MEET BLITZ.

In the words of one of our dedicated volunteers, "Blitz is a big angel baby!!" He is also very tidy and particular about cleanliness. For instance, he doesn't like getting his feet wet, and will not step foot in muddy grass! Someone needs to tell Blitz he lives in South Mississippi now! Lol! He is house trained, and relieves himself immediately upon going outdoors. He walks great on a leash and harness, and is very well behaved. Blitz is most definitely BFF material, and would love to join an active household where he will be considered a family member. He is playful with other friendly dogs, and loves to romp-n-play with his pals in our doggie exercise yard. So, a home with a fenced backyard is preferred. We can't say enough great things about this 2 to 3 year old Labrador Retriever/American Staffordshire Terrier mix. So, please come meet Blitz for yourself. You will fall in love with him. If you are interested in adopting Blitz, please call our front desk at 228-466-4516, Mon-Fri, 10am-4pm, to schedule a meeting. Please bring your dog(s) and children along for the visit to ensure compatibility. You just might find your new family member, and you will give this boy the loving home that he deserves.

BY JAMES KEATING MD

This year the Ocean Springs Yacht Club (OSYC) hosted the 70th annual Chapman Regatta sponsored by the Mississippi Coast Yachting Association (MCYA). Judy Reeves is the Commodore of the MCYA. The Bay Waveland Yacht Club (BWYC) won the event. Five coast teams competed in the event: BWYC, Singing River Yacht Club (SRYC), OSYC, and Biloxi Yacht Club (BYC). The overall team scores were BWYC 39, SRYC 53, GYC 72, OSYC 75, BYC 81 with low points winning the series. Three races occurred on Saturday June, 2, 2021. Sunday races were cancelled because of rain storms.

OSYC provided twelve identical Hobie Wave sailing catamarans for the one boat competition. This "cat" or catamaran is a 13' sailing vessel composed of two parallel rotomolded polyethylene hulls of equal size connected by a mesh trampoline. A single 20' mast supports a large, fully battened, boomless mainsail. This sailboat is an easy-to-sail, easy-to-rig speedster. In the mid twentieth century beach cats enjoyed widespread popularity for recreation and sailing competition. Catamarans were introduced to the Olympics in 1976.

The Chapman Regatta started in 1950 when the Chapman brothers donated the Chapman Trophy to the MCYA. This regatta is the oldest consecutively sailed team racing event in the United States. The BWYC has won this regatta 39 times. James Edwards, Charlie Breath, Luke Rosetti, Clinton Edwards, and Rod Stieffel skippered for the BWYC.

DWGA MAY 2021 NEWS

BY COLLEEN JONES

May 6th we played Trophy Day Net scoring on the Cardinal course. The overall winner was Denise Bergeron with a net score of 72. The first flight winner was Amy Swint with a score of 74, second place was Linda Metz with a score of 77 and third place was Carla Knoop with a score of 78. The second flight winner was Cathy Weber with a net score of 75, there was a tie for second place between Dianne Ackerman and Bev Cox with a score of 76 and third place was Joyce Teerling with a score of 78. Birdies were had by Teresa Ertel and Denise Bergeron. Closest to the pin was dominated by Denise Bergeron, she won holes 4, 7 and 13. Teresa Ertel was closest to the pin on hole 17. Chip ins were had by Denise Bergeron and Linda Metz. I would say Denise was hot that day.

May 13th we played our annual Scotch Double on the Pine course. This is a women and man team that play alternate shots through all 18 holes. Things can get pretty heated in this format. The winning team was Liz Bell and Mike Sheffield scoring 72 and they won through a scorecard playoff because Margie and Ronnie James also scored a 72. There was also a tie for second place between Joyce Teerling and John Bunce team and Cassandra and Larry Godbold team with a score of 73. There was a three way tie for third place between the teams of Colleen and Jerry Jones, Patty Hourin and P. Montjoy, Terri and Tom Woolbright with a score of 76.

May 20th we had a rain out.

May 27th we played the annual Presidents Cup. This is where our president Margie James gets to pick the game and presents the prizes. The prizes she gave this year were very cute wine glasses with a golf

Had a call from an old friend recently. Mathilde Berlin was very much looking forward to getting her boys on the water.

Every time we spoke on the phone, I could hear all of them hollering in the background. Boys will be boys...

In the early stages of our planning, her Husband Brian was gonna bring 2 or 3 of the boys.

As our charter got closer, the number of people and winds had increased.

By the time our date arrived, we had close to 20mph winds and 6 people coming! Mathilde, Brian and all the boys were going fishing.

They were tough, I will give them that. It was not the calmest day I've ever been out in. I had to find some protected water, and then some fish.

It took us several moves, and it was slow fishing.

The boys were good, but they wanted to reel in some big fish.

We finally found a calm shore line in the back bay. The first bait out got nailed by a nice redfish. Just about every bait after got eaten too.

It was just what we needed.

Mom and Dad helped keep the hooks from flying into the kids. I got the boys to help reel in fish, net fish, tag fish and ice or release fish. Once we got our rhythm going, those fish didn't stand a chance. It was so good, some of the boys even had to stop Fishing, to get a drink or snack.

We typically don't do more than groups of 4 on our boats.

From time to time we do make exceptions, and this was one of those times.

I don't think we ever had more than 3 or 4 lines fishing at one time, and everything went well.

I'm pretty sure Mathilde and Brian got treated to nice fresh fish dinner that evening, and maybe even celebrated with a cool 6-Pack?

Lohman's Lifetime of Love

BY TAMARA
HAWTHORNE LOHMAN

In a time of unprecedented change and uncertainty within the world, one passion that never changes is love, along with the desire to hear a good love story. When I first met James and Carolyn Lohman, they took me under their wings and accepted me as a part of their family. I did not have much to offer them in return – with the exception of gratitude. Now, forty years later, I wish I could have done more to repay their kindness in life toward me. In retrospect, probably the greatest of life's lessons that I learned from this amazing couple is the lesson of boundless and enduring love. I learned this truth via simple observation of their undying love for each other – for how else would a couple still be together sixty-seven years after saying, “I do?” Statistics show that the average marriage in America only lasts about eight years. The Lohmans have demonstrated that love can last much longer than that.

Their love continues to remain strong to this day! Together they have experienced parenthood and the joys of becoming grandparents and great-grandparents. They have endured hardships, such as Hurricane Katrina, and have experienced the loss of family members and friends. They have also shared the precious gift of many beautiful seasons together and a lifelong friendship with one another.

If I could dedicate a few songs to James and Carolyn, they would be as follows: “Moonlight Serenade” (1939) by Glenn Miller and His Orchestra, “Moonglow” (1936) by the Benny Goodman Quartet, “Star Dust” (1941) by Artie Shaw and His Orchestra, and lastly, “Young-at-Heart” (1954) by Frank Sinatra (because it was recorded in the year they were wed).

Time is a priceless treasure, and this couple has had the privilege of spending a lifetime together. They have shared tears of sorrow and joy as the sands of time have continuously sprinkled love upon them and upon their loved ones. It is reminiscent of a well-known Bible verse concerning love. I Corinthians 13:13 states the following: “And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.” James and Carolyn Lohman have proven (through example) that love can remain steadfast – even amidst an ever-changing world. Love is truly the greatest gift one could ever hope to experience in life.

Waveland Elementary School artists have been awarded state and local honors in the 2021 Mississippi Law Day Art Contest, sponsored by the Mississippi Bar Association.

Elizabeth Smith won 1st in the state for her original interpretation of this year's theme, “Advancing the Rule of Law NOW”. Her artwork is on display on the Bar Association's website at www.msbar.org. In addition, her design will be published in the summer issue of The Mississippi Lawyer magazine. All winners received certificates in acknowledgment for their outstanding posters.

Waveland Elementary students have participated in the Law Day Art contest for over a decade. The lessons and posters have become a favorite for art teacher Dale Pohl, who says, “I'm so fortunate to be able to hear my students' thoughts about our country, our government and their role as responsible Americans. They are really paying attention to what goes on in our world, and how they would like to help by doing their part. Their ideas and commitment, as shown in their artwork, is very encouraging.”

Destination Waveland scheduled for Saturday, September 4th

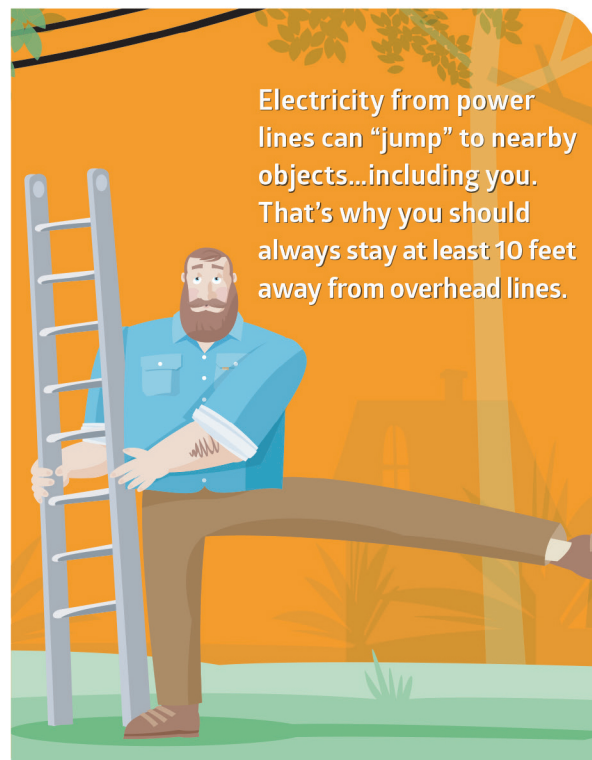

SEA COAST ECHO

For the past several years, Waveland has hosted the Destination Waveland event on July 4th with a fireworks display. However, this year the board decided that the Destination Waveland event would be best held on Labor Day weekend.

Destination Waveland will be on Saturday, September 4th. Even with the current national shortage of fireworks, Waveland signed a contract in June for a fireworks show. The Destination Waveland event will have at least one but possibly multiply music acts.
